

GREEN THUMBS: The Woopi Gardens 2015/2016 committee has been voted in with the new team holding a working bee today. PHOTO: ROBERT WATKIN

Woopi Gardens welcomes new team

THE Woolgoolga Regional Community Gardens, better known as The Woopi Gardens, are holding a working bee today at the site.

The gardens are marked by the mural located in Scarborough St between the netball courts and the old Pacific Hwy.

Last week, The Woopi Garden committee saw a strong turn out by the community for their annual general meeting.

Garden president, EJ Merrick, thanked the outgoing committee and gave special mention to the volunteers who have helped the gardens flourish.

He also thanked the community for donations to help develop the gardens including the painting of the garden mural by Ash Johnson and Key Employment students last month.

Out-going secretary Adam Curlis thanked the committee for it's efforts over the years.

Adam has previously worked with the Coffs

Harbour Community Gardens, The Bellingen Gardens and other Community Gardens in Sydney.

Woolgoolga Garden Club's Scott Rodham chaired the election of the 2015/2016 committee with all four executive positions filled and nine people elected to form part of the new committee.

To volunteer or donate to The Woopi Gardens send an emails to woopigardens@gmail.com.au or contact EJ Merrick on mobile 0410 505 178.

PAGE 5

SAT OCT 31 2015 WOOLGOOLGA ADVERTISER